

PRIVATE LABEL MANUFACTURING AND SUPPLY TERMS AND CONDITIONS

THESE TERMS AND CONDITIONS GOVERN ALL LSIC PRIVATE LABEL MANUFACTURING AND SUPPLY AGREEMENTS FORMED AFTER MARCH 31st, 2020.

1. Purchase and Sale Obligations.

1.1 General. LSI Chemical (“LSIC”) and Purchaser have entered into a Private Label Manufacturing and Supply Agreement (“this Agreement”) subject to these terms and conditions. As used in these Terms and Conditions “Effective Date” shall mean the Effective Date of this Agreement. Through this Agreement, Purchaser agrees to purchase, and LSIC agrees to sell the products specified in Schedule A (Products) (the “Products”). Purchaser is authorized to resell such Products under Purchaser’s own trademarks and trade name.

1.1.1 Rights in this Agreement vary depending upon the type of formula Product stems from. The Formula types are:

Type A aka “Base Formulas”: Formulas LSIC sells under its own brand name;

Type B: LSIC created variations of Type A formulas;

Type C: LSIC custom blends;

Type D: Variations of Types A-C using Purchaser chosen ingredient(s);

Type E: Purchaser provided blends.

1.2 Formulas. Purchaser acknowledges that LSIC shall formulate and may produce Products based upon the proprietary formulas owned and controlled solely by LSIC. Purchaser acknowledges that all resulting formulas, processes or property developed by LSIC under this Agreement are still the sole property of LSIC. LSIC is the sole owner of Type A-D formulas. These formulas are not available for purchase. If Purchaser requires and pays a separate formulation charge for a Type C formulation, the formulation is the property of the Purchaser.

1.3 Batch Variations. Due to variations when combining it is normal to see slight variations in color, scent and viscosity from lot-to-lot as the raw material ingredients may vary from production lot-to-lot. A Product shall be considered properly manufactured whether or not there is a color, viscosity or scent variance of any degree.

1.4 Minimum Purchase Commitment. Purchaser agrees to order from LSIC for delivery during each Contract Year during the term of this Agreement, the minimum number of Products, per Contract Year, as is specified on Schedule B attached hereto and incorporated herein (the “Minimum Purchase Commitment”). Contract Year shall mean each twelve (12)-month period commencing with the date Products are first available for shipment to Purchaser. The failure to meet the Minimum Purchase Commitment shall not constitute an Event of Default as defined in Section 14.2 (Termination Upon Event of Default) of this Agreement. Failure to meet the Minimum Purchase Commitment (“Low Purchase Volume”) shall cause the price to increase on all Type B-E Product(s) purchased under this Agreement. Supplier agrees that, in the event of Low Purchase Volumes, Supplier will pay LSIC the difference between the price negotiated on Schedule B and the price LSIC had offered Supplier without a Schedule B Minimum Purchase Commitment on all purchases made in the Low Purchase Volume year. Such payment must be made within 30 days of the close of the Low Purchase Volume year.

1.4.1 Example: LSIC offered Supplier Product at $200 a case. Instead, LSIC and Supplier agreed to a Price of $180 per case, provided Supplier purchase 1000 cases of product in Year 2 of the Agreement. Supplier purchased only 900 cases that year. Within 30 days of the end of Year 2, Supplier must pay LSIC $18,000 (the $20/case difference on the 900 cases purchased).

- 1.5 Governmental Rules and Regulations. LSIC's obligation to ship orders to Purchaser under this Agreement shall be subject to LSIC's right and ability to make such sales and obtain required licenses and permits, under all applicable decrees, statutes, rules and regulations of a government and/or agency with competent jurisdiction presently in effect or which may be in effect hereafter.

2 Packaging and Ingredients.

- 2.1 Components. Unless otherwise agreed, LSIC shall provide all selected packaging components and materials, including but not limited to caps, bottles, seals, leak prevention measures, etc. (collectively called the "Components"). Purchaser is solely responsible for verifying that the quality and delivery of all Components used by LSIC in Products meet Purchaser's standards and are appropriate for the Product(s) selected by the Purchaser.
 - 2.1.1 Additional steps. All additional steps including, but not limited to master packing, tamper evident seals, shrink wrap, blister packing, lot coding, extra capping, etc., if available, will incur additional fees.
- 2.2 Purchaser Provided Ingredients. If the Purchaser is providing any ingredients to LSIC for use in any formulation, Purchaser shall make available the current MSDS and Certificate of Analysis (COA) for each provided ingredient. Purchaser shall also be responsible for creating any MSDS required for the final product. Purchaser indemnifies LSIC and accepts all financial and other responsibility for any negative effects and outcome when formulations are manufactured using the ingredients stipulated by Purchaser.
- 2.3 Labeling. Labeling is included in LSIC's standard fees unless specifically agreed otherwise. Purchaser shall be completely and solely responsible for all content, including but not limited to health, storage, safety, and use instructions and claims. All labels will be applied by machine or (hand as necessary) and may vary in application quality and acceptance is non-negotiable and assumed accepted as is.
 - 2.3.1 Purchaser supplied labels. Purchaser supplied labels must comply with regulatory, statutory and/or LSIC required specifications. Purchasers providing their own labels must submit labels for preapproval of e.g. material, label size, roll size, core size, and quantity per roll. Upon approval, Purchaser agrees to deliver at least 10% overage of all Components prior to the start of LSIC services for any particular order. Any delay in the Purchaser provided components will result in a project delay and could incur additional storage fees for any previously delivered components per Section 2.4.
 - 2.3.1.1 Clear label stock. The application of clear label stock is normative as is the application of front and back labels. Labels of different stock will incur an additional 10% application fee.
 - 2.3.1.2 Variance. Slight label tilting and height variances will not be redone, refunded or credited.
 - 2.3.1.3 Label loss. LSIC is not responsible for any quality issues that relate to labels and their application, and Purchaser should allow for a 10% loss on labels.
- 2.4 Unused supplies. Unless otherwise agreed to in writing, upon the later of (a) completion of an order or (b) termination of an Agreement with non-zero minimum purchase amounts any unused Purchaser-supplied labels, packaging or ingredients shall be shipped back to Purchaser at Purchaser's expense with the order. Upon signature of a separate Storage Agreement, arrangements can be made for LSIC to warehouse Purchaser property for a period not to exceed twelve (12) months on terms set forth by LSIC for a fee to be determined.
 - 2.4.1 Unused Items. Unless otherwise agreed to in writing, any LSIC-supplied labels, packaging, ingredients or other supplies specifically procured for Purchaser ("Items") must be used to fulfill a Purchase Order within six (6) months of procurement. If Items are not so used, Purchaser shall be invoiced for all unused Items at a price of COGS+20% with terms of 1%/10 Net 30. Items shall be shipped to Purchaser at Purchaser's expense only after payment is received.

2.4.1.1 Exception. A minimum purchase commitment constitutes an exception to the timeframes discussed in section 2.4.1. In the event Purchaser and LSIC have entered into an ongoing Agreement with an annual Minimum Purchase Commitment, 2.4.1 shall cause Purchaser to buy unused Items only upon termination, expiration or default of such Minimum Purchase terms.

2.5 Testing. Unless otherwise specifically agreed in writing, Purchaser is solely responsible for testing of any Product(s). With regard to Product(s), blending and combination of ingredients provided or stipulated by Purchaser, LSIC does not conduct any testing (including, for example, efficacy, stability and consistency) without specific authorization and payment by Purchaser. Furthermore, the only Products represented as "safe for use" are Product Types A-C. Despite the above, LSIC offers a wide range of testing services upon request and advance payment by Purchaser.

3. Orders, Payment and Delivery.

3.1 Orders. Purchaser shall order Products from LSIC under this Agreement by submitting to LSIC a written purchase order specifying the Products, quantities and requested delivery dates required to enable LSIC to fill the order. Each purchase order submitted to LSIC is subject to acceptance by LSIC at its offices to which such order was submitted, and once accepted cannot be refunded, returned, credited, exchanged or cancelled for any reason. Acceptance is defined as the receipt by LSIC of an order, contract, non-disclosure agreement, private label manufacturing agreement and deposit by Purchaser. LSIC shall have no liability to Purchaser with respect to orders which are not accepted by LSIC; provided, however, that LSIC will not unreasonably reject any orders for Products which do not require any modifications or additions, other than the modifications of LSIC's products, if any, specified in Section 4.3. Subject to the foregoing, LSIC may reject, in its sole discretion, any order for customized Products. In the event LSIC has not given Purchaser notice of acceptance or rejection of a purchase order within ten (10) business days of receipt thereof, such order shall be deemed accepted. The purpose of the purchase order to be issued under this Agreement is for specifying the Products, quantities and requested delivery dates only; no terms and conditions of Purchaser's purchase orders, LSIC's order acknowledgment or any other document or instrument of Purchaser or LSIC shall be binding upon the other party or amend or modify this Agreement in any manner.

3.2 Prices. The purchase price for Products sold under this Agreement shall be determined in accordance with Schedule A (Products) hereto from the date hereof until the end of the first Contract Year. The fees and prices do not include any applicable sales, use, value-added, excise or any other tax, duty or charge which is now in effect or may be hereafter imposed by any federal, state or other authority. All applicable taxes, duties or other charges shall be paid by Purchaser in addition to all fees, prices, and expenses, invoiced by LSIC. After the first Contract Year, LSIC may modify the prices for Products, upon notice to the Purchaser; provided such prices do not increase more than five percent (5%) in any one Contract Year, unless justified by cost increases incurred by LSIC from third-party suppliers. LSIC agrees to provide Purchaser with thirty (30) days prior written notice of any price change and LSIC agrees to honor the price in effect prior to any notice with respect to orders (i) placed prior to the price change effective date and (ii) not modified or canceled by Purchaser. All sales are Ex Works (EXW) INCOTERMS 2020, Supplier facility in origin, or such other facility as may be designated by Supplier. Purchaser agrees to separately pay all expenses incurred by LSIC in the shipment and delivery of ordered Products, including without limitation freight charges, import duties and insurance premiums. Purchaser shall determine, in its sole discretion, the price at which Purchaser resells Products to Purchaser's customers.

3.3 Shipment and Delivery. Shipments will be made to the domestic warehouse facilities of Purchaser as designated by Purchaser in advance of each shipment. Shipments will be made as requested by Purchaser's carrier. In the event Purchaser requests express delivery or shipment by air instead of by truck or by courier service, Purchaser agrees to pay all additional expenses required by such request. LSIC will use commercially reasonable efforts to meet Purchaser's requested delivery schedules for Products. For Purchaser's first purchase order, the latest shipment date shall be 90 days after receipt of purchase order, unless delayed by governmental registration restrictions. In any other event, LSIC agrees to ship the ordered quantity of Products within thirty (30) days after receipt of the applicable purchase order, unless the quantity of Products ordered in such purchase order exceeds the number of products forecasted (pursuant to Section 2.6 (Forecasts)) by twenty-five percent (25%) or greater, in which case, LSIC agrees to ship those Products ordered in excess of the forecast within ninety (90) days after receipt of such purchase order. Should orders for Products exceed LSIC's available inventory, LSIC will allocate its available inventory and make deliveries on such basis as LSIC deems equitable, as agreed to by both parties. Unless otherwise specified in Purchaser's purchase order, LSIC shall be authorized to make deliveries in installments. Purchaser shall make any claims for shortage or damage of Products with the common carrier promptly upon receipt of the order and provide LSIC with written notice of such a claim. Except in the case of negligence on the part of LSIC or LSIC's failure to package Products as set forth below, LSIC will not have responsibility for Products damaged in shipment and Purchaser must handle all claims for damage with the carrier. As between LSIC and Purchaser, Products shall be deemed accepted by Purchaser unless, within ten (10) business days of delivery of the Products, Purchaser affirmatively rejects the Products, by written notice detailing the reasons for rejections. The parties acknowledge that they may mutually agree in writing in the future that the foregoing period of time be modified. Such reasons for rejection may be non-conformance of the Products to the technical specifications described on Schedule A (Products), damage in connection with bodily injury and property damage arising out of any defect in the Products made intentionally, unintentionally or negligently by LSIC during manufacturing and packaging, and the breach of any material provision of this Agreement by LSIC. If no such notice of rejection is received, Purchaser shall be deemed to have accepted delivery provided; however, the acceptance of delivery shall in no way diminish or affect the product warranty given by LSIC in Section 6 (Warranty and Repairs). If Purchaser rejects a shipment, Purchaser shall promptly return a sample of the defective Product to LSIC in accordance with LSIC's instructions, to enable LSIC to, within thirty (30) days, inspect and determine whether the Product is defective; provided that Purchaser shall retain the rest of the Products pending such determination. It is Purchaser's responsibility to properly store and handle all Products pending inspection and/or return. If rejection was timely effected and LSIC determines the Products to be defective, LSIC agrees to repair or replace the Products or cancel an unpaid invoice or refund the amounts paid with respect to such defective Product which is returned to LSIC, at LSIC's option.

3.3.1 Shipment Packaging. Unless Purchaser requests otherwise, all Products ordered by Purchaser shall be packed for shipment and storage in accordance with Schedule A (Products). It is Purchaser's obligation to notify LSIC of any special packaging requirements (which shall be at Purchaser's expense).

3.4 Payment. Purchaser agrees to pay amounts invoiced under this contract by LSIC without offset or deduction for any reason whatsoever except as otherwise provided in Section 3.3 (Shipment and Delivery). Purchaser agrees to typical LSIC billing terms which typically vary from up-front to Net 60 depending upon Supplier credit and which will typically be outlined in this Agreement. Payments shall be made in U.S. dollars only and shall be made payable only to LSIC by the following forms of payment: bank wire, VISA/MasterCard or American Express, or other approved means. If Purchaser fails to pay any amount when due, Purchaser agrees to pay all costs and expenses, including without limitation reasonable attorney's fees, incurred by LSIC in collecting such overdue amounts, together with interest on such unpaid amount at the lesser of one and one-half percent (1-1/2%) per month or the greatest amount permitted by applicable law. LSIC reserves the right at any time after Purchaser fails to make any payment within sixty (60) days after the due date, to require payment for all Products delivered hereunder to be made by irrevocable letter of credit. If LSIC elects to have payment made by letter of credit, Purchaser shall select the issuing bank, which must be acceptable to LSIC. Any such letter of credit shall be governed by Uniform Customs and Practice for Documentary Credits (UPC) 500.

3.5 Title and Risk of Loss. Title to and risk of loss of the Products shall pass to Purchaser upon the earlier of delivery of the Products to Purchaser or to a carrier at LSIC's point of shipment. Any insurance covering the Product(s) in transit shall be for an amount not less than the full invoice price of the items delivered, with LSIC named as loss payee or additional insured.

3.6 Forecasts. Purchaser shall submit a rolling twelve (12)-month sales forecast to LSIC every twelve (12) months on the first day of the calendar month first following the Effective Date of this Agreement. Such sales forecast shall include expected sales quantities per month, order dates, shipping dates and Product requirements. If the most recent forecast becomes materially inaccurate at any time, Purchaser shall promptly provide LSIC with updated information. The Purchaser shall issue a purchase order and purchase the Products included in the first three (3) months of each forecast, in accordance with the provisions of Section 2.1 (Orders).

4. Substitutions and Modifications; Discontinued Products; Quality Assurance.

4.1 Components. Unless otherwise agreed, LSIC shall provide all selected packaging components and materials, including but not limited to caps, bottles, seals, leak prevention measures, etc. (collectively called the "Components"). Purchaser is solely responsible for verifying that the quality and delivery of all Components used by LSIC for the private label products meet the Purchaser's standards and are appropriate for the product(s) selected by the Purchaser.

4.1.1 Additional steps. All additional steps including, but not limited to master packing, tamper evident seals, shrink wrap, blister packing, safety discs, lot coding, extra capping, etc., will incur additional fees.

4.3 Customization. LSIC agrees to modify LSIC's product in accordance with the technical specifications set forth on Schedule A (Products). LSIC and Purchaser shall collaborate to ensure the proper dilution, specifications, and usability between the base material of LSIC's products and that of Purchaser. Technical specifications of LSIC's products and their modifications according to Purchaser's requirements for the Products are set forth on Schedule D.

4.4 Product Changes. Except with respect to Products ordered pursuant to a purchase order which has been accepted by LSIC as described in Section 2.1 (Orders) LSIC shall have the right, at any time and from time to time, to make substitutions and modifications to the Products (substitution of raw ingredients allowable by applicable governmental agencies); provided, however, that LSIC agrees to consider that Purchaser's Customization needs as specified in Schedule A (Products) and Schedule D (Technical Specifications) in making any such substitutions or modifications.

4.4.1 Notice. In the event that any proposed substitution or modification affects, in LSIC's reasonable judgment, the form, fit or function of a Product, LSIC shall give Purchaser written notice of such proposed substitution or modification at least thirty (30) days prior to its taking effect and Purchaser shall have the right, during such thirty (30)-day period, to order Products without such substitution or modification for delivery within fifteen (15) days after the expiration of such thirty (30)-day period. Any changes that affect the Product performance, operation or documentation shall be provided to the Purchaser in writing with no less than ninety (90) days' notice.

4.4.2 Purchaser's Rights. Purchaser is prohibited from making substitutions or modification to the Products. Purchaser shall have the right, at any time and from time to time to request substitution and/or modification to the Products. In the event of such request LSIC agrees to review and consider the requested modifications and notify Purchaser whether it is feasible and/or practical to make the modifications requested. In the event LSIC notifies Purchaser the modifications are feasible and practical, it will also notify Purchaser of the estimated modification costs and estimated time for manufacturing the modified Product.

4.5 Discontinued Products. LSIC agrees to notify Purchaser in writing not less than six (6) months in advance of the discontinuance of any Product. In the event LSIC is unable to manufacture the Products for Purchaser (due to bankruptcy, fire, lack of raw materials or other event of force majeure), then Purchaser will have the right to manufacture the Products (or have the Products manufactured for Purchaser), and, in exchange, pay a reasonable royalty or license fee for such right. The conditions for the transfer of know-how related to such manufacture shall be agreed upon separately in good faith by the parties.

4.6 Quality Assurance. The Products shall be manufactured in accordance with industry standards. Purchaser shall be permitted to inspect facilities in which the Products are developed and produced upon reasonable advance written notice to LSIC, during business hours at times reasonably convenient to both parties; provided, however, that Purchaser acknowledges that all information obtained in the course of any such inspection shall be deemed proprietary information pursuant to Section 5 (Confidentiality) of this Agreement. LSIC shall be permitted to inspect Purchaser's storage and handling procedures of the Product upon reasonable advance written notice to Purchaser during business hours at times reasonably convenient to both parties; provided, however, that LSIC acknowledges that all information obtained in the course of any such inspection shall be deemed proprietary information pursuant to Section 5 (Confidentiality) of this Agreement.

5. Confidentiality.

5.1 Confidentiality. LSIC and Purchaser agree that both this agreement and certain information supplied by either Party to the other Party during the term of this Agreement, including, without limitation, the Products, the documentation and the intellectual property and technology underlying the Products (including but not limited to the ingredients, their relative concentrations and techniques for mixing and conditioning that comprise the Product(s)), the information for customization pursuant to Section 4.3 and information contained on purchase orders or regarding Purchaser's ordering or delivery patterns is proprietary, secret, confidential and/or non-public. All such information shall be held in confidence by the receiving party, shall be used only for the purposes of this Agreement and shall not be disclosed to any person other than an employee with a need to know the information in order to fulfill the obligations of the receiving party hereunder.

5.1.1 Exclusions. Information shall not be subject to the provisions of this Section 5 (Confidentiality) if shown by recipient's records to be: (i) in the public domain at the time of disclosure or thereafter through no fault of the recipient; (ii) known to the receiving party at the time of disclosure; (iii) disclosed to the receiving party without an obligation of confidentiality by a third party with the legal right to make such free disclosure; or (iv) developed independently by the receiving party by personnel without access to or knowledge of the information disclosed. The receiving party may disclose information to the extent requested or required by a governmental or judicial entity, provided such disclosure is limited to the fullest extent it is permitted to be limited by applicable law.

5.1.2 Documents and copies. All documentation with respect to the Products (except information contained in or for use in manuals, promotional materials or educational materials to be provided to Purchaser's customers), are furnished solely for Purchaser's internal use. Purchaser may make copies of such documentation to satisfy its internal requirements, provided that all such copies include appropriate copyright and proprietary information notices. No other copies or use of such documentation, or any portion thereof, shall be made without the prior written approval of LSIC. From time to time, Purchaser shall provide LSIC with feedback, comments or suggestions regarding the Products (collectively, "Feedback"). Feedback, if any, will be the property of the LSIC and may be freely used by LSIC in LSIC's business.

5.1.3 Termination. Upon termination of this Agreement, Purchaser shall return or, at LSIC's request, destroy all confidential, proprietary or secret information of LSIC in Purchaser's possession. The obligations of the parties pursuant to this Section 4 (Confidentiality) shall survive the expiration or earlier termination of this Agreement for a period of five (5) years.

6. Intellectual Property Rights.

6.1 General. The Parties agree that LSIC is the exclusive owner of trademarks (including designs and logos), trade secrets, copyrights, specifications, chemical composition and all methods and instructions for their formulation, processing and production, and other intellectual property rights relating to LSIC, the Product(s), Services and Custom Formulation(s) ("LSIC Intellectual Property"), with the exception of any private label rights granted to Purchaser under this Agreement and excluding any preexisting rights of the Purchaser that the Purchaser provided to LSIC.

- 6.2 Intellectual Property Usage. Purchaser shall not use LSIC Intellectual Property for any other purpose than to perform the terms of this Agreement. In the event that Purchaser wishes to purchase a custom formulation, Purchaser agrees not to attempt to reverse engineer formula. Purchaser also agrees not to seek an alternative source of the same or similar formulation for a period of five years from the date the first purchase order of the custom formulation is fulfilled.
- 6.3 Confusion. Purchaser agrees to refrain from any action or to allow any action to be taken to damage LSIC interests and Intellectual Property rights in any jurisdiction where Purchaser does business. Therefore, Purchaser agrees, neither to register nor to assist in registering, any LSIC Intellectual Property rights or other rights (including LSIC's Private Label system, patents, copyrights, trade secrets, trademarks, trade names or symbols) of LSIC or other marks or rights which may be confusingly similar to LSIC anywhere worldwide. Unless specifically granted by LSIC, Purchaser disclaims any right to use or claim ownership of LSIC Intellectual Property.
- 6.4 Trademark Usage. Purchaser agrees that the Products purchased and/or licensed hereunder shall be sold or leased by Purchaser only under the trademarks, trade names or logos (collectively the "Purchaser Marks") of Purchaser.
- 6.5 Notices. Purchaser shall not alter or remove any copyright, trademark, trade secret, proprietary and/or other legal notices of LSIC or third parties contained on or in the Products. The existence of any such copyright notice shall not be construed as an admission, or be deemed to create a presumption, that any publication of such Products has occurred.
- 6.6 Logos. LSIC shall label all Products with Product Labels, as may be specified by Purchaser. Purchaser shall provide LSIC with camera-ready artwork necessary for the labeling of the Products, which shall include, without limitation: Purchaser Marks, Product serial numbers, UPC codes, and such additional information as may be specified by Purchaser. Purchaser shall be responsible for the costs of such labeling. Purchaser shall be responsible for the costs of registration.
- 6.7 Trademark License. Purchaser grants to LSIC a non-exclusive, non-transferable right to use the Purchaser Marks solely on the Products ordered by Purchaser hereunder and associated packaging. LSIC agrees to the following:
 - 6.7.1 to comply with Purchaser's guidelines and instructions regarding use of the Purchaser Marks as communicated to LSIC from time to time;
 - 6.7.2 in the event Purchaser notifies LSIC that such use is not in conformance with Purchaser's guidelines and instructions, to promptly bring such use into conformance;
 - 6.7.3 to ensure that all use of the Purchaser Marks will not reflect adversely upon the good name or good will of Purchaser and that all Products in connection with which the Purchaser Marks are used are of high standard and workmanship and of such nature, style, appearance and quality as shall be adequate and suited to the protection of the Purchaser Marks and the goodwill associated therewith;
 - 6.7.4 not to use the Purchaser Marks as part of, or in combination with, any other names or trademarks without Purchaser's prior written approval;
 - 6.7.5 not to register (or aid any third party in registering) the Purchaser Marks or take any action inconsistent with Purchaser's ownership of the Purchaser Marks in any jurisdiction; and

6.7.6 that all usage of the Purchaser Marks will be on behalf of, and inure to the benefit of, Purchaser.

7. Warranty.

7.1 Warranty. LSIC warrants that the Product Types A-C will be free from defects in material and workmanship, and will substantially conform to the technical specifications described in Schedule A (Products), in normal use and service for a period and under the terms set forth in Schedule C (Warranty Terms), annexed hereto and made a part hereof. The warranty set forth in this Section 6.1 (Warranty) shall be void to the extent of (i) any modification of a Product by any person or entity other than LSIC, (ii) misuse or abuse of a Product or documentation by Purchaser or Purchaser's customers or end users, (iii) negligence or wrongdoing of Purchaser or Purchaser's customers or end users, (iv) accident, disaster or event of force majeure, (v) use of a Product or documentation in any manner inconsistent with this Agreement, (vi) improper storage of a Product, (vii) use of a Product in combination with products, equipment or software not supplied by LSIC or by Purchaser or (viii) use of a Product in combination with products supplied by Purchaser without LSIC's technical approval. In the event Purchaser believes supplied product does not conform to the above warranty, Purchaser shall return to LSIC a sample of the Product(s) which it claims are nonconforming or defective at Purchaser's expense and safeguard the remaining product pending resolution of the warranty claim. If LSIC, in its sole discretion, agrees with Purchaser that the Product(s) are nonconforming or defective, and that the cause is determined to be the fault of LSIC, then LSIC shall have a reasonable time to either (i) cure any nonconforming or defective tender by substituting conforming Product(s) at LSIC expense or (ii) refund Purchaser's purchase price. Either remedy is subject to LSIC sole discretion. In the event that Purchaser does not inform LSIC in writing regarding any alleged defect in the Product(s) within the ten-day notice period described in Section 3.3 (Shipment and Delivery), Purchaser waives all rights under any applicable law to raise a claim. Purchaser shall pay LSIC for services performed by LSIC not covered by this Section 6.1 (Warranty) at LSIC's then current time and materials rates.

7.2 Disclaimer. Except for the warranty set forth in this Section 6 (Warranty) and Section 11 (Representations and Warranties), LSIC disclaims all warranties, whether express or implied, oral or written, with respect to the Products, including without limitation, all implied warranties of merchantability or fitness for any particular purpose. Laws from time to time in force in certain jurisdictions may imply warranties that cannot be excluded or can only be excluded to a limited extent, and this Agreement shall be read and construed subject to any such statutory provisions. Purchaser shall be responsible for any warranty it extends, either directly or indirectly, expressly or by operation of law, beyond the warranty expressly granted in this Section 6 (Warranty). LSIC is not responsible for (i) damages caused by Purchaser's failure to perform Purchaser's responsibilities or (ii) damages due to deterioration during periods of storage by Purchaser longer than those periods set forth in the Product documentation.

8. Consequential Damages Waiver; Limitation of Liability. EXCEPT FOR LIABILITY ARISING UNDER SECTION 5 (CONFIDENTIALITY) AND A PARTY'S OBLIGATIONS UNDER SECTION 12 (INDEMNITIES) IN NO EVENT SHALL EITHER PARTY BE LIABLE TO THE OTHER FOR SPECIAL, INDIRECT, INCIDENTAL OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES, EVEN IF SUCH PARTY SHALL HAVE BEEN ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF THE SAME.

9. LSIC's Support Obligations.

9.1 Training. LSIC agrees to provide to Purchaser product and technical training for Purchaser personnel at LSIC's production facility in Ohio. For product training and technical training, LSIC will provide the training facility, training materials and training personnel. Purchaser shall be responsible for the travel, hotel, and other living expenses of its personnel being trained.

9.2 Marketing and Promotional Materials. LSIC shall provide technical consultation to Purchaser for Purchaser's development of its own internal promotional and educational materials. Purchaser shall be solely responsible for the costs of developing promotional and educational materials for Purchaser's customers and end users.

10. Product Recalls. LSIC shall be responsible for all recalls of Product Types A-C. LSIC agrees to take any and all actions, at its sole cost and expense, which are reasonably necessary and appropriate to effectuate a Product Type A-

C corrective action, including, without limitation, a Product recall, provided, however that Purchaser agrees to cooperate with LSIC in such action, including, without limitation contacting customers and assisting in the transfer of Products, as directed by LSIC, if necessary. LSIC agrees to respond within a reasonable period to any question or request for information received by Purchaser from its customers pertaining to the production of Product. Each party agrees to provide to the other party all necessary information in its possession arising out of a recall or corrective action program or similar program, including an LSIC quality assurance program. Upon thirty (30) business days written notice, each party shall, at a time and place mutually agreeable to the parties, have the right to audit and inspect the other's facilities and/or records relating to such party's obligations under this Agreement and with respect to the Products. All information that the inspecting party obtains in the course of such inspection or audit shall be treated as "Confidential Information," in accordance with Section 4 (Confidentiality) of this Agreement.

11. Representation and Warranties. Each party hereby represents and warrants to the other party as of the Effective Date as follows:

- 11.1 Authorization. Such party (i) has the corporate power and authority and the legal right to enter into this Agreement and perform its obligations hereunder, and (ii) has taken all necessary corporate action on its part required to authorize the execution and delivery of this Agreement and the performance of its obligations hereunder. This Agreement has been duly executed and delivered on behalf of such party, and constitutes a legal, valid, binding obligation of such party and is enforceable against it in accordance with its terms subject to the effects of bankruptcy, insolvency or other laws of general application affecting the enforcement of creditor rights and judicial principles affecting the availability of specific performance and general principles of equity whether enforceability is considered a proceeding at law or equity.
- 11.2 Absence of Litigation. LSIC is not aware of any pending or threatened litigation (and has not received any communication) which alleges that the Products infringe upon any intellectual property rights of a third party.
- 11.3 Intellectual Property. To the best of LSIC's knowledge, LSIC has sufficient legal and/or beneficial title and ownership under LSIC's intellectual property rights or sufficient license rights necessary for LSIC to fulfill LSIC's obligations under this Agreement and that LSIC is not aware of any communication alleging that LSIC has infringed the intellectual property rights of any third party.
- 11.4 Purchaser's Provisions. In providing to LSIC any and all Product specifications, ingredients, labels, packaging, and materials or any kind, Purchaser represents and warrants that it has the requisite authority to stipulate and provide such specifications, ingredients, labels, packaging, and materials and that such components, either individually or in combination shall not infringe any third party rights of ownership or use.
 - 11.4.1 Purchaser shall comply with all laws and regulations relating to the conduct of its business in all jurisdictions where it does business.
